Report :

Republic Day was celebrated on 26 January 2021 in Ram Krishna Dwarka College in which cultural program was organized by the Cultural Cell. In which the students sang the national anthem. The flag hoisting was done by the Principal Prof.(Dr.) Indrajit Prasad Roy at 9:00 am and the flag was saluted by all the teachers and non-teaching staff present. On this occasion, the Principal expressed his reverence for the nation and the Constitution and explained the importance of patriotism to the students by telling them the past of independent India. In the program, NCC students paraded and saluted the flag and they were rewarded by the respected Principal. In this program 24 teachers and 57 students were present. Corona guidelines were followed during the entire program.
