Report :-

A speech competition was organized at Ramakrishna Dwarika College under the aegis of Cultural Society and IQAC on the occasion of 'International Literacy Day' on 08.09.2022. The theme of which was "Literacy: New Dimensions of Change in the Learning Space". Presiding over the program, Principal Prof. (Dr.) Indrajit Prasad Roy said that a great change can be brought about in education through technology. Technology will help a qualified teacher to make precise strategies in the art of teaching. The example of which we saw in the Corona period when students were taught through online classes in the college. Cultural Society coordinator Dr. Shailaja Sinha, co-coordinator Mrs. Nidhi Sinha and Dr. Sarita Kumari played an important role in making the program a success. A total of 25 students participated in the competition in which Priya Barnwal, Aashka Sinha and Shalu Dubey got first, second and third position respectively. Dr. Indira Jha, Dr. Shailaja Sinha and Dr. Arun Kumar Sharma were on the jury. The stage was conducted by Smt. Nidhi Sinha and the Vote of thanks was given by Dr. Sarita Kumari. Dr. Arvind Kumar, Dr. Ikram Ali Rashid, Dr. Kunjbihari Prasad, Dr. Nirmala Kumari and Dr. Amar Kumar were present among the teachers. The role of Radhika, Komal Kumari, Pooja, Komal, Dheeraj, Aarti, Saurabh, Ashish, Prashant, Rajnandan was commendable in making the program a success.
